FROM THE PASTOR From the pastoral constitution on the Church in the modern world of the Second Vatican Council - Peace is not the mere absence of war or the simple maintenance of a balance of power between forces, nor can it be imposed at the dictate of absolute power. It is called, rightly and properly, a work of justice. It is the product of order, the order implanted in human society by its divine founder, to be realized in practice as men hunger and thirst for ever more perfect justice. The common good of the human race is subject to the eternal law as its primary principle, but its requirements in practice keep changing with the passage of time. The result is that peace is never established finally and forever; the building up of peace has to go on all the time. Again, the human will be weak and wounded by sin; the search for peace therefore demands from each individual constant control of the passions, and from legitimate authority untiring vigilance. Even this is not enough. Peace here on earth cannot be maintained unless the good of the human person is safeguarded, and men are willing to trust each other and share their riches of spirit and talent. If peace is to be established it is absolutely necessary to have a firm determination to respect other persons and peoples and their dignity, and to be zealous in the practice of brotherhood. Peace is therefore the fruit also of love; love goes beyond what justice can achieve. Peace on earth, born of love for one's neighbor, is the sign and the effect of the peace of Christ that flows from God the Father. In his own person the incarnate Son, the Prince of Peace, reconciled all men to God through his death on the cross. In his human nature he destroyed hatred and restored unity to all mankind in one people and one body. Raised on high by the resurrection, he sent the Spirit of love into the hearts of men. All Christians are thus urgently summoned to live the truth in love, and to join all true peacemakers in prayer and work for peace. Moved by the same spirit, we cannot but praise those who renounce violence in defense of rights, and have recourse to means of defense otherwise available to the less powerful as well, provided that this can be done without injury to the rights and obligations of others or of the community.

Oakley Musicians Abroad will have a fundraiser dessert night on Monday, Nov. 6 at 200 Center in the Logan County Community Foundation Building from 5:00-7:00. There will be pie, cheesecake, cookies, and many other desserts. Please come for some great food and fellowship.

Oakley Musicians Abroad students are selling Poinsettias. They are offering 3 different colors red, red glitter, and white for $37 each. If you are interested, please contact Nolin Kuhlman, Brooke Smith, or Kenna Selzer. NOTE – These do not replace the normal poinsettias for the parish.

PIZZA WITH PADRE – Through some requests, I will be hosting a “Pizza with Padre” on November 7th at 6:30pm in the St. Joseph School. This will be a time to ask me questions regarding, but not limited to, the faith, morals, sacraments, etc. Pizza and drinks will be provided. It would be helpful if you could let me, Fr. Luke, know if you plan to attend, but it is certainly not necessary. A question box will be available at the entrances of the church if you would like me to be prepared ahead of time.

YOUNG ADULT NIGHT – November 19th at 6:30pm. Over the last few months I have been seeing more and more young adults/couples show up to church, which is fantastic! To help foster community amongst this group, I will be hosting a Young Adult Night. Food and games will be provided. If you are interested in attending, please RSVP to Fr. Luke by November 12th. Hope to see you there!

ST. JOSEPH NEWS

Nov. 9th @ 8:30 Mass is Veteran's Day Mass and Breakfast to follow at the school. All veterans and spouses are welcome to attend.

D of I meeting, St. Catherine Circle, Thursday, November 9, 1:00 p.m. at the parish annex. Prior to the regular meeting, there will be an auditors' meeting at 10:30 a.m., followed by a memorial service and mass for our deceased members. Please be at the church by 11:15 to start the memorial service. After mass, we will gather back at the annex for a potluck lunch and the regular meeting. Hostesses for the meeting are Carol Weiser and Mary Lou Van Eaton.

St. Joseph Pizza Hut Fundraiser will be held on Monday, November 20th. 2nd grade parents will deliver.

If you would like to donate toward our youth attending NCYC you can use the envelopes in the back of Church. Thank You!

If you have not done the new parishioners data form that was done during Mass, last weekend, please either pick up a hard copy at the entrance of the church or complete it online. (if it does not have a ministry list in the form, you're doing the wrong one).
